

Tackling Modern Slavery Through The Hotel Industry

THEORY OF CHANGE

Stop Slavery Hotel Industry Network

OUR GOAL

By 2018

An established network of hoteliers who are ready to work collectively and share learnings throughout the sector.

INDICATORS OF SUCCESS

- An average of 75% of the network membership will be in attendance and actively participating at the network meetings.
- One product (i.e. report, tool, guidance) will be produced to address a specific issue related to modern slavery within the industry.
- A resource hub of mapped best practice to be accessible to network members (and beyond).

By 2020

A network with expanded scope through engagement with representatives from across various sectors to develop and test methods that can address modern slavery within the hotel industry.

- Network make-up of brands, management companies and owners (each group will be represented).
- Strengthened dialogue with government actors to influence relevant policy.
- Tools created through the network with the endorsement of various experts will be taken up by industry stakeholders beyond the membership.
- Self-sustained Network.

By 2025

An established thought-leadership provider within the industry regularly feeding into best practice across all relevant stakeholder groups.

- Regular input into UK government policy discussions to ensure anti-modern slavery initiatives feature high on the agenda when discussing the hotel industry.
- Tested blueprints and guidance to support other hotels and hospitality companies.
- Increased engagement with the international hotel industry through the network and relevant partners.
- Best practice and learning opportunities shared with other industries where relevant and required.
